VII. POLICE, FIRE, AND EMERGENCY UNITS:

The City of San Leandro Police Department will provide daytime security during Sausage & Suds Music Festival; although the ultimate responsibility rests with the vendor, and neither the San Leandro Downtown Association nor the City of San Leandro will assume responsibility for lost or stolen property.

There are clearly marked fire lanes that must be kept open at all times. You may be subject to fine and/or closure for noncompliance. All participants are subject to and must comply immediately with any and all additional safety or fire protection requests, directions, or requirements assigned them by the San Leandro Downtown Association, Alameda County Fire Department, or San Leandro Police Department.

As a necessary precaution to ensure a safe and enjoyable event for all, the Alameda County Fire Department requires the following in EACH BOOTH SPACE at ALL times during the fair:

- At least one Fire Extinguisher per 10' x 10' booth space.
- The Fire Extinguisher MUST BE class 2A10B:C.
- NOTE: Food vendors cooking with oil must also have a K-Type extinguisher for oil/grease.
- Fire Extinguisher must be tagged with proof of purchase/inspection/service within the last year.
- The Fire Extinguisher must be MOUNTED inside each booth and EASILY ACCESSIBLE.
- The Fire Extinguisher must remain mounted throughout the duration of the event.

Any open flame must be 20 feet away from a tent wall. Please keep this requirement in mind when deciding how much booth space to rent.

Fire Department officials will be inspecting each booth for compliance prior to the commencement of the event on Sunday morning.

XI. SUSTAINABILITY:

The San Leandro Downtown Association has made a commitment to sustainability and responsible use of resources. All plates, napkins, and utensils dispensed to the public MUST be recyclable or biodegradable. The use of polystyrene foam containers is strictly prohibited per the City of San Leandro Polystyrene Foam Food Service Ware Ordinance No. 2011-011.

We are using a Clear Stream system of collection, meaning there is a sorting method of separating organics / recycling / landfill items. Please use appropriate containers throughout the day and after the event, during clean-up. To ensure a prompt and full refund of your cleaning deposit, please remove all debris from your booth area to the appropriate container. DO NOT pour any oil, grease, or cleaning agents in the storm drains or gutters. Storm drains flow to the bay. Violators will forfeit their deposit, and may be fined.
